NEW CREEK NOT TO BE USED FOR DEFENSE

By Associated Press.

St. Petersburg, May 20.—The circular of Interior Minister Von Plehwe, issued May 17, ascribed the massacres of the Jews to Kishineff largely to acts of self-defense on the part of the Jews and continued:

"The events at Kishineff have alarmed the Jewish portion of the population in many districts of the empire and have occasioned rumors among the Christians about intended Jewish persecution. In view of the above the Jews have begun forming self-defense associations. A report is in circulation that the disorders in Kishineff originated with the object to impress on the authorities in the provinces and in St. Petersburg that they are helpless and are apparently responsible to take all the necessary measures to prevent violence and calm the top place in order to remove the occasion of fears for life and property in any portion.

"In informing your excellency of the monarch's will, I feel obliged to state for your guidance that no sort of associations for self-defense can be tolerated."

The Jews are not inclined to depend solely on the police, and have armed themselves in spite of the circular, throughout the Jewish belt. Undoubtedly their action prevented a repetition of the massacres at Kiev, Odessa, Minsk and elsewhere. The Minsk Jews are so alarmed that on slightest outbreak causes a general closing and barricading of their streets.

DENVER IS FINALLY FREED FROM THE STRIKE INCUBUS

By Associated Press.

Denver, May 21.—The strike which for several days has practically paralyzed the business of the city, involving nearly 10,000 men and women and threatening to force into idleness twice that number of union members, was settled at 7 o'clock this evening through the efforts of a committee from the chamber of commerce and one from the local Typographical union.

Though both sides made concessions the victory seems to be with the laboring men. The agreement entered into between the general executive committee of organized labor and the executive committee of the Citizens alliance whose membership embraces nearly all the employers of labor in the city, concedes the right of employes as well as employers to organize; permits employers to choose their employes regardless of their membership in unions, forbids the discharge of employes on account of their affiliation with unions; provides for the arbitration of the present differences by a board to consist of five each of employers and employes directly involved in the present trouble with, if necessary, an eleventh man who has not been so involved, the findings of this board to be binding upon all members of the Citizens alliance and upon all unions represented by the general executive committee; all strikes, lockouts and boycotts are declared off, the men now out are to be reinstated as rapidly as their services can be utilized, all suits for injunction are to be withdrawn.

Text of Agreement.

The following is the text of the agreement:

"This agreement, made and entered into this 21st day of May, 1903, by and between the Citizens alliance, representing all manufacturers and business men who belong thereto now involved in strikes and lockouts and hereinafter called the alliance, and the general executive committee of the labor organizations now involved in strikes and lockouts in the city and county of Denver and representing them, and hereinafter called the general executive committee, witnesseth:

That the parties hereto agree as follows, to-wit:

"1—All employers of labor who are members of the alliance concede the right of employes to combine and work together in whatsoever way they think will increase their earnings, shorten their hours of labor, lessen their labor or better their condition, and concede their right to organize or join labor unions, and also concede the right of members of labor unions at all times outside of business hours to use peaceful and lawful methods to induce employes to become members of labor unions, providing employers shall not be denied the right to give permission to representatives of labor unions to visit employes during working hours. The fact that an employe is a member of a labor union is not of itself a sufficient reason for discharging such employe.

"2—The general executive committee concedes the right of employers to organize into associations of employers or federations of employers, and also their right to have their work done by whom they desire. Employers in hiring employes should make no distinction between employes who are members of labor unions and employes who are not members of labor unions.

Arbitration Board.

"3—That the differences now existing between the employers and employes in the city and county of Denver, touching hours of work, wages, working and sanitary conditions, shall be submitted to arbitration on the following basis:

"A—That an arbitration board to be composed of 10 members shall be selected as follows: The alliance shall name five persons as arbitrators from the employers now having differences with their employes, and the general executive committee shall name five persons as arbitrators from the employes now having differences with the employers. Should these 10 fail to agree on a decision, they shall select an eleventh person, who shall neither be an employer nor an employe concerned in existing differences.

"B—No officer of the alliance or member of its executive committee nor any member of said general executive committee of labor unions shall be named as a member of said board of arbitration.

"C—That all differences as hereinbefore stated shall be arbitrated by said board, and the findings of said board on the differences arbitrated shall be accepted and be binding upon all employers and employes involved, the alliance and all the labor organizations of the city and county of Denver represented by the general executive committee.

To Resume Work.

"4—That pending arbitration all strikes and lockouts now in existence shall be called off, and all employes shall at once report for work to former employers, and all such former employers shall, so far as their business will permit, reinstate former employes.

"5—That any and all boycotts that may have been declared because of present difficulties against products of members of the alliance shall at once be declared off and no boycott shall hereafter be declared anywhere on any goods, wares or merchandise manufactured or handled by any member of the alliance growing out of the existing state of affairs. Neither shall re-employed employes be discharged for any cause arising out of the existing state of affairs.

"6—That the following suits shall at once be dismissed, the plaintiff in each case to pay all costs, namely: D. C. Coates et al. vs. the Citizens alliance of Denver et al., now pending in the district court, in the city and county of Denver; the United States Colortype company vs. Charles Young et al., now pending in the district court in the city and county of Denver, and the City Transfer company et al. vs. the Teamsters National union of America, transfer Drivers local No. 83, et al., now pending in the circuit court of the United States for the district of Colorado.

"In witness whereof, the parties hereto have hereunto set their names, the day and year first above written.

"The Citizens Alliance,

"By J. C. Craig, President.

"The General Executive Committee of Labor Unions,

"By D. C. Coates, Chairman."

The committees that have been laboring for the settlement of the strikes have been in session almost continuously for two or three days. Last night it was announced that an agreement was almost in sight, both sides having shown more willingness to make concessions than at any other time. All day the residents of the city who have all been more or less inconvenienced by the conditions have been hulling between hope and fear, and late tonight, when the announcement of the final settlement was made in the newspaper extras, there was a general feeling of joy throughout the city.

[illegible] ARE SENTENCED TO [illegible]

[illegible] SWEPT BY CYCLONES

[illegible] Part of [illegible] Razed and Property Loss Some Persons Fatally Injured—Two [illegible] Reported in One County—Large Damage Reported at Wright.

By Associated Press.

Ashland, Kas., May 21.—This place and a large portion of the county were laid waste this evening at 5 o'clock by a cyclone. The damage will be immense and it is considered miraculous that no lives were lost. So far as it is known tonight nobody was killed and none in Ashland injured severely. Others reported from the country districts that some were fatally injured. The indications are that the storm was worse in the country than in town. This country is very sparsely settled, however, and no particulars are obtainable tonight of the extent of the damage done. The business section of Ashland was not damaged to any great extent. The residence portion suffered most. The homes of J. P. Campbell, M. H. Stevenson, C. B. Nunemacher, A. Van Orsdall, W. L. Ainsworth and D. R. Kerns were completely wrecked. As many as 50 others are partially demolished. Campbell, Stevenson and Ainsworth were injured, while their houses went down.

The fine fruit farm of F. R. Kerns was swept clean of trees and buildings. The Theis ranch house was destroyed and trees and windmills are down in all directions. A large number of cattle were killed.

It is reported here tonight that other villages in this vicinity suffered but both the definite extent can be learned.

TWO KILLED AT SALINA.

By Associated Press.

Salina, Kas., May 21.—The third cyclone in Salina county, within the past 24 hours, struck Assaria tonight. Two were killed and a dozen or more injured.

Dead:

WILLIAM A. OLSEN, 13 years old.

PETER OLSEN.

Of the injured none are fatally hurt.

The house in which the Olsens lived was demolished completely and the body of the boy was found 30 rods from where the house stood. Peter Olsen was so badly hurt that he never regained consciousness. The other members of the family escaped with slight injuries.

The wind carried the farm house occupied by Nels Olsenburg, a distance of five rods. Miss Christine Olsenburg saw the storm coming and escaped from the house a half minute before it was carried away.

A terrific rain storm followed the cyclone. At Bridgeport in this county, hail fell continuously for 20 minutes, doing immense damage to the wheat.

IN HODGMAN COUNTY.

By Associated Press.

Kingsley, Kas., May 21.—A tornado passed over Hodgman county, 16 miles northwest of Kingsley, at 4 o'clock this afternoon destroying Dan Gleason's house and killing Mabel Tuttle.

DAMAGE AT WRIGHT.

Wright, Kas., May 21.—A cyclone visited this place tonight about 8 o'clock, demolishing a number of houses and unroofing some others. As far as can be ascertained nobody was fatally injured. Crops were damaged greatly and stock killed.

[illegible] MINERS DECIDED

By Associated Press.

Portland, Ore., May 21.—President Roosevelt traveled through the fertile Willamette valley from early this morning until 2 o'clock this afternoon when he arrived in this city. At Salem, the capital of the state, a stop of three hours was made and the president delivered an address on citizenship at the capitol. The only other stop made during the day was at Oregon City, a manufacturing town 15 miles south of this city. All along the route crowds gathered at the station and gave the president an enthusiastic reception. At this city he made two speeches, one at the laying of the cornerstone of the Lewis and Clark monument and another at the banquet given in his honor at the Hotel Portland tonight by the citizens of Portland. The president spent the night there and at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning will resume his journey, two hours later crossing the Columbia river and entering the state of Washington.

At Salem after speaking in warm terms of the men of the U. A. R. and the members of the Second Oregon regiment who fought in the Philippines, the president continued:

"It is not only the lesson of what these men did in war that we need to learn, my fellow citizens; it is the applied lesson of what citizenship will teach. Fundamentally, in this country we are free from the dreadful curse of religious hatred and persecution which has worked so much evil in times past in the world at large. We realize that a cornerstone in the building of this government must be not merely religious toleration before the law but a genuine religious toleration among ourselves. We in America are to be held thrice blessed that the chance for animosity between Jew and Gentile or between Christian sects has become infinitesimal to the vanishing point. Once more not only must there be no line of demarkation drawn among our people on grounds of creed or grudges of sect, but there must be no line of caste drawn among them on account of class or occupation. There is but one safe rule to follow in public life as in private life and that is the old, old rule of treating your neighbor as you would like your neighbor to treat you (applause); the old rule of decency, of honesty, of square dealing as between man and man. Just as long as our people keep character, so long as they have the fundamental virtues of decency, of courage, of common sense, just so long we may rest assured that this country will go onward and upward until it occupies a place among the nations of mankind such as has never before been known since the days when history was first written."

On his way to the depot, the president noticed an invalid child lying upon a stretcher on the curbing. He stopped his carriage, alighted and kissed the little girl.

[illegible] DEFICIENCY

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 21.—Congress will be asked at the opening of its next session to make an appropriation to cover deficiencies in both the regular delivery service and the rural free delivery service of the postoffice department. Postmaster General Payne today announced that this deficiency now aggregates exactly $227,300, of which $105,700 is in the free delivery branch. The postmaster general said he very much regretted the existence of the deficit and for the first time publicly criticised the administration of A. W. Machen, the general superintendent of the free delivery system who is now on indefinite leave of absence.

Mr. Payne tonight, in discussing the big deficiency in the free delivery, said:

"It is very reprehensible for a bureau officer to have a deficit of $200,000 rolled up on the first of May. It was bad, very bad administration. A bureau officer should not incur a deficit without consulting his superior officer, the postmaster general. I cannot stand for that kind of administration and I do not approve of it. An official must be held to a more strict accounting. I do not say that there was anything criminal or anything wrong in Mr. Machen's action but it was certainly loose administration and he should have had his business more in hand. I believe, however, that congress will quickly vote the money to cover the deficiency."

Superintendent Machen, when told tonight of the postmaster general's criticism about the free delivery deficit, said there had been no intention on his part to deceive his departmental superiors. He said:

"I forwarded to Mr. Wynne at the close of April a statement of the deficit then existing. Those figures were on routes already established. The figures for routes to be established May 1 and May 15 and June 1 and June 15 had not been then put on the books by the bookkeeper. Therefore the deficit of $20,000 was not a misrepresentation of the actual condition of the appropriation at that time.

"I should have asked congress," added the free delivery superintendent, "for a larger sum than $500,000, which was voted at the last session of the present fiscal year. The pressure for more rural routes was very strong, and I yielded to it beyond what the appropriation really provided. The same thing has been done in years gone by and congress has always readily voted the money necessary to make up the deficit."

El Paso, Texas, May 21.—The first official act of Chief of Police Wooton, son of Major Dick Wooton, the celebrated Colorado frontiersman, was to stop a prize fight, scheduled to be pulled off at the opera house here tonight.

GRASSHOPPERS DEVASTATE A SECTION OF MONTANA

By Associated Press.

Bozeman, Mont., May 21.—One section of Montana is eaten up by locusts, while another lies under three feet of snow. Prof. R. A. Colley of the Agricultural college has received word that a district 6 miles square, situated east of Forsyth, is pestered by the Rocky mountain grasshopper, which has eaten up everything.

Cattle have to be removed from the infested district as there is nothing for them to feed on.

EXPERIMENTING WITH NEW CURE FOR TUBERCULOSIS

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, May 21.—Dr. William T. Baird is experimenting with a new cure for tuberculosis at Fort Bliss, near El Paso. It is a liquid which is to be injected. Its composition is yet a secret except to the surgeons in the army throughout the country. Dr. E. O. Sinks of Fort Bayard, is here making a study of the new cure in order to introduce it at the United States Military sanitarium.

Articles of incorporation of the Western Sugar & Land company have been filed with the secretary of state in Denver. The corporation is capitalized at $1,000,000 and is taken to mean that the Grand Junction deal which has been on for so many months is closed. The plant at Grand Junction, in which much Colorado Springs capital has been invested, it is stated, will become one of the large sugar-beet factories of the state.

The articles name Alfred Hand and W. J. Hand, Scranton, Pa., W. C. McCurdy, Grand Junction, R. P. Davie and J. R. McKinnie, of Colorado Springs, as directors. The principal office will be in Colorado Springs, and branch offices will be established in Scranton, Pa., and Grand Junction.

Both Mr. Davie and Mr. McKinnie have been in Denver for several days in connection with the organizing of the company and have returned to the city.

The articles set forth that the company will raise sugar beets, cane and other saccharine products; will manufacture sugar, molasses and similar compounds, and will establish refineries, deal in mineral and agricultural lands, build reservoirs and promote irrigation.

It is understood that the plans of the new company, which has absorbed the Grand Junction beet-sugar plant, provide for extensive cultivation of the sugar beet in the Grand valley and other sections of the state. The acreage of the company is large, and the plant which was closed a season ago, is one of the best in the west. The deal for a reorganization of the company has been pending several months, and much interest has been taken in it all over the state.

Messrs. Davie and McKinnie are both well-known operators in beet-sugar enterprises, Mr. McKinnie being one of the largest stockholders in the big Loveland factory. The new company embraces large holdings.

[illegible] ELECTED MODERATOR

[illegible] DR. COYLE A MODERATOR

By Associated Press.

Los Angeles, Calif., May 21.—The 115th assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States convened at Emmanuel Presbyterian church at Tenth and Figueroa streets this morning. Two sessions were held during the day, the morning being taken up with the annual sermon of the retiring moderator, Rev. Henry Van Dyke of Princeton university, and the entire afternoon to the election of a moderator for the ensuing year. Rev. Dr. R. F. Coyle of Denver, Colo., was elected on the second ballot. In the evening the administration of the Lord's supper occupied the time of the commissioners. Rev. Dr. Van Dyke presiding.

Moderator Van Dyke called the assembly to order promptly at 11 o'clock. His sermon, which occupied about an hour in its delivery, was a notable effort. His subject was "Religion in Relation to Human Happiness," and he urged his hearers to teach simplicity of religion instead of metaphysical doctrine.

Immediately after concluding his sermon, Dr. Van Dyke declared the general assembly formally opened. An adjournment was promptly taken to 2 o'clock. The campaign for the election of moderator was then resumed and continued until the afternoon session was called to order. Dr. Coyle won, as expected, but not without a struggle. It required two ballots to elect him. On the first he fell 12 votes short and on the second the count was not finished as Dr. Coyle had a majority before the roll call was completed. Dr. William Roberts of New York, present clerk of the general assembly, developed strength enough to make him a close second on the first ballot. Dr. Roberts was placed in nomination by Rev. Jaramel B. McCormick, D. D., of Coe college, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Rev. D. Fitzgerald of Cincinnati named Dr. David S. Schaff of Lane theological seminary, Cincinnati. Dr. Coyle's candidacy for the moderatorship was set forth by Rev. Dr. William N. Page of Topeka, Kan.

Rev. Orville Reed of Montclair, N. J., placed the name of Dr. Calvin W. Mater before the assembly.

On the first ballot 680 votes were cast. Dr. Coyle received 319, just 12 short of election; Dr. Roberts 220, Dr. Mater 88, Dr. Zenos 21, and Dr. Schaff 14.

A second ballot was ordered but before the beginning of the roll call Dr. Roberts withdrew from the contest.

Professor Zenos' name was also withdrawn. This left Coyle, Mater and Schaff in the race. The taking of the second ballot was begun. When Dr. Coyle's vote had reached 332, a majority, Dr. Roberts moved that the election of Dr. Coyle be unanimous, and this motion prevailed, amid hearty applause.

After the transaction of brief minor business, adjournment was taken and the benediction was pronounced by Dr. Coyle.

DROUTH IN NEW YORK.

New York, May 21.—Dispatches from various parts of the state report that no rain has fallen for five weeks and that vegetation is withering and pasturage has become scarce.

[illegible] DEFENDER AND CONSTITUTION

By Associated Press.

New York, May 21.—By a combination of good luck and splendid sailing qualities the new cup yacht Reliance today inflicted such a defeat upon the former cup defender Columbia as she never had suffered, leading her over the finish line of a 24-mile course off Glen Cove, by 14 minutes and 43 seconds, official time. Not all of the glory of the victory was fairly earned by the new boat. If it had been there would be no doubt that the Reliance would be the next cup defender, but, despite the Columbia's ill luck, the Reliance convincingly showed herself to be the better boat. She had beaten the Columbia nearly eight minutes in a broad reach of 11 miles in fluky zephyrs, beat her one minute and 15 seconds running free three miles in a steady 12-knot breeze and beat her four minutes and 15 seconds in a 11-mile thresh to windward close hauled in a 15-knot southwester. This timing is unofficial, and allows for the Reliance's 55 seconds advantage at the start. When the Reliance crossed the finish line the Columbia was miles astern hopelessly beaten.

The first leg of today's race was not a fair test of the merits of the two boats but it sufficed to develop surprising drifting qualities in the Reliance, supposed until today to be a heavy weather boat. Time:

Boat—	Start.	Finish.	Time.	Elapsed
Reliance	1:07:00	6:14:26	4:17:26
Columbia	1:07:00	6:29:19	4:32:19

The Reliance, Columbia and Constitution will race off Glen Cove Saturday if the Constitution is out of the dry dock in time; if not the Reliance and Columbia will sail the race.

WILL CLARK RETURNED TO REFORM SCHOOL.

Runaway From School While Under Parole—News of the Courts.

The first juvenile to disobey the instruct ons of Judge Orr, was brought before him yesterday and the suspension of his sentence to the reform school set aside. Under the terms of such suspension, the original sentence went into effect and he was directed to be taken to the reform school at Golden.

The case was that of Willis Clark, 14 years old, arrested several weeks ago, charged with having stolen some small articles from several stores at Manitou. When arraigned in the county court he pleaded guilty to the charge and was given the above sentence. It has been the custom on the part of Judge Orr to impose such sentences in all cases, but to suspend them during good behavior and under certain instructions to report regularly to the court. Among the instructions given young Clark was the duty to attend school regularly. Several days ago Judge Orr learned that Clark had not been at school for a week, although he had told his parents that he had been. He directed the juvenile officer to bring him before him. The boy was brought in yesterday morning and the terms of his sentence imposed. Judge Orr said at the time that he hated to be compelled to do as he had done. "I have to be firm with the boys, however," he said, "if I am not, it won't be long before they will be running things themselves. I hope the example will prevent any other infraction of my instructions."

A verdict of guilty was returned yesterday in the first jury case ever tried in the new county court house. John Kelly was the defendant, and he was charged in the complaint with having stolen a bicycle from S. H. Pyatt of Colorado City. His attorney, W. A. Edmonston, requested that a jury be called and the evidence was introduced for its decision. According to the verdict rendered Kelly was declared to have taken the bicycle in question on January 25. He was also declared to have attempted to dispose of it in this city. The case was given to the jury at 3:30 and the verdict was delivered two hours later.

According to the decision of the jury, Judge Seeds will pass sentence today. Under the terms of a recent statute, the stealing of a bicycle is made grand larceny regardless of the value of the wheel, and it is this charge on which the jury found Kelly guilty. The punishment is a penitentiary sentence.

In the district clerk's office yesterday a demurrer was filed by the defendant in the case of T. A. Gibson vs. the Hill Brick & Tile company. The complaint had originally asked for $15,000 damages for an injury alleged to have been sustained while in the employ of the defendant company, and as a result of the negligence of the defendant. The demurrer asks that judgment be entered in favor of the defendant for the reason, as alleged, that the complaint does not set forth grounds sufficient to show a cause of action. It is also charged in the demurrer that the allegations in the complaint are ambiguous and uncertain.

A replication was filed by the plaintiff in the suit of E. B. Joyce against Michael J. Spillane. The answer of the defendant had set up the sum of $500 against the demand of the plaintiff, which, it is asked the court to declare to be a credit in his favor. The replication denies that any such sum is owing to the defendant and asks that the case be set for trial on the issue thus made up.

In the district court a motion was filed by the plaintiff in the suit of H. H. Farnsworth against the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company. The motion asks that the complaint be made more specific, stating in what respect the plaintiff suffered injuries.

An answer was filed by Joseph P. Jackson in the suit against him by Martha Atkins. The complaint sets forth three promissory notes as having been transferred to the plaintiff, on which judgment is demanded. The notes were for various amounts, one was for $1,085, another for $1,200 and the other for $90.50. The defendant admits the execution of the notes but denies that they were transferred to the plaintiff for either a good or valuable consideration.

Roscoe Greenfield, a boy charged with the commission of a misdemeanor, failed to appear in the criminal court yesterday when his case was called. He had given his personal recognizance for appearance some months ago and it was thought he would be on hand at the trial. His parents were instructed to have him in court today.

The trial of Warren Amos, charged with criminal assault, began before a jury in the criminal court yesterday afternoon. He is charged with having assaulted a 5-year-old girl about a month ago. The limit of the punishment for such an offense is 14 years in the penitentiary.

Rumors Have Been Current in the Cripple Creek District for Several Days that, upon the return of President W. R. Gillett, of the Denver & Southwestern Railway company, to New York, circulars will be issued announcing changes to become effective June 1. It is said that curtailment of expenses is at the bottom of the changes contemplated. According to the report, Jesse Watson, general superintendent of the railway company, is to be made general manager in charge of the entire interests of the Denver & Southwestern company, including operating and traffic departments of the railroad as well as the Colorado Trading & Transfer company. A. E. Carlton is said to have already resigned as general manager of the trading company, L. R. Ford, vice president and traffic manager of the railway company, will be relieved of traffic matters and will devote his attention to the accounting department.

The presumption has been jumped at in Denver by those with but little knowledge of the situation that the rumored changes in the Denver & Southwestern means the consolidation of that system with the Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek District railroad. President Irving Howbert of the Short Line states that this is but one of the constantly recurring rumors in regard to the Short Line which have no foundation. He states that the Short Line will be kept independent. Since the Short Line organized its own company under the name of the Cripple Creek Coal & Transportation company the business has been divided between the two mercantile establishments and the curtailment, as it affects the trading company, is taken to mean a move predicated upon this condition.

THE GRAND JURY'S CRITICS.

IT IS a very unfortunate thing for a community when a body of men like a grand jury cannot be summoned in a legal manner and for a justifiable purpose without being made the subject of contemptible attack by politicians and for politicians.

The grand jury which has recently completed its labors was, in the opinion of those who knew, a honest, honest and capable body of men. It went about its work diligently and pursued it faithfully until it was obliged to complete its labors through the expiration of the term of court.

Because this jury went at its work without regard to politics and because the indictments which it returned were brought in irrespective of the political affiliations of the indicted it has a pack of petulant politicians yapping at its heels and saying, "Why didn't you indict so and so and this man because he was a Democrat or a Populist or a Prohibitionist?"

The grand jury cannot indict every person in a community. It can only indict those whom it believes guilty upon evidence brought before it. And moreover if these critics believed somebody else should be indicted, why not furnish a little evidence and help out the cause of truth and decency?

That body was ready and willing to hear any evidence brought to its notice.

A grand jury is not to be judged by the number of indictments it brings in; it is by the earnestness with which it pursues its task. Nevertheless, 17 indictments against two city officials now holding office is a fairly good effort. The jury might have wished to indict others but have been barred by the statute of limitations, as some of its critics ought to know, but apparently do not. It is necessary, also, to examine the county treasurer's books every time a grand jury is called, but that, too, seems unknown to its critics. It would have been far better for El Paso county if it had had a grand jury every year for 10 years past.

The recent jury was an earnest, earnest, non-partisan body of men as ever performed a similar duty. It was worth all it cost and it is to be hoped its members will not be disturbed by criticisms so palpably made for political effect.

SAVE THE SCHOOL LANDS.

MRS. HELEN L. GRENFELL, the state superintendent of public instruction, has made an earnest plea against the policy of selling state school lands. For several years past the land board has concluded that the welfare of the schools of the state would be better subserved by leasing these lands upon annual royalties than through a sale. The present land board, however, has reopened the practice of selling the lands, and although only small tracts have thus far been disposed of, it is not difficult to believe that larger ones may be sold in the months and years to come.

Thus the heritage of the children of the state of Colorado, their right to an education, will be rapidly diminished. The majority of the board makes the contention that the funds from the sale of these lands are to be placed at interest and cannot be used for any other than school purposes. But nevertheless, the best investment is in these school lands themselves. As the state of Colorado increases in population these lands will be worth more and more. New discoveries will be made upon them from year to year, and in time, they will prove to be of immense value.

Sound business judgment, therefore, would seem to require the retention of these lands practically as they now exist, securing from them a regular and steadily increasing rental, which will return a larger interest than any securities would bring.

A PUBLIC SERVICE.

THE Good Roads association is wise in deciding to devote its attention largely to the dust problem. This body has already performed excellent service in behalf of the citizens in general in the matter of good roads, and now by giving its earnest attention to a single subject, in getting all the theories and advice to be had, and in making practical applications, it will certainly arrive within the next year or two at some positive and definite conclusions upon the matter. The citizens, generally, have cause for satisfaction that there is a public-spirited body of this kind in the city which is making such an earnest and sincere effort to abate one of the greatest evils with which the city is menaced.

Mr. E. H. Harriman finally decided when he had about recovered from his attack of appendicitis that he would be operated upon after all. His resolution offers an interesting illustration of the strenuous life now followed by some of the eastern magnates. He did not wish to have a recurrence of the malady, because "it might come at an inopportune time," as, for example, when he was busily engaged in merging a few railroad systems. Who knows but it may hereafter become a part of the routine business of every magnate to have himself properly "fixed up" during his leisure for the strenuous life which is to follow.

The State School for Mute and Blind is taking time by the forelock and securing more property by gift and by purchase for the use of the pupils of that school. This institution is in many respects a model one. It is growing rapidly, and is adding to its group of buildings as necessity requires and the legislature permits. The new acquisition of land will give larger space for the recreation of the pupils, who may still be within the grounds of the institution. In time also the new land will probably be utilized for new buildings. The institution, therefore, is to be congratulated on the outlook for the future.

Congressman Cushman of the state of Washington is running for governor of the state. His declaration in favor of his was going to make a speech that would have to be printed on extraordinary paper and distributed with hand grenades has attracted much attention to the state that the people think their congressmen should be proficient.

Henry T. Wickham got back to Tuscaloosa the other day with his gift of $50,000, and was greeted by the friends with this sign: "Turkey Buzzard Tuscaloosa." It is a sickly sort of welcome that would warm the cockles

AS BRYAN WOULD HAVE IT.

Mr. Bryan cannot be happy until Mr. Cleveland declares positively that he will not be a candidate under any circumstances, but Mr. Cleveland's desire to promote the happiness of Brother Bryan is even less pronounced than his aversion to carrying the banner again, and he leaves Brother Bryan to guess at his intentions. This is Mr. Bryan's latest guess:

"I venture to say that his purpose is to positively refuse to be a candidate after a while, and then allow his friends to say that he would have been nominated and elected had he not refused to run. This might afford Mr. Cleveland some satisfaction as a salve for the bruises which he has nursed since 1896."

There is a general impression that it was not Mr. Cleveland who had bruises to nurse in 1896 and 1900. Somebody failed to come to when time was called, and he was carried out of the ring, but he didn't weigh more than half as much as Mr. Cleveland, and it will be difficult to persuade those who saw the knockouts that the loser was Grover Cleveland, disguised as a lightweight.—(Philadelphia North American, Ind. Rep.

BILL FOR FOREIGN TRAVEL.

America, being a big country and a rich one, is able to spend on its pleasures sums which reach enormous totals each year. There are plenty of amusements which have a place on the country's balance sheet in the hundred-million class, but most of them are of a kind in which all or nearly all of the people participate to a great extent.

One form of pleasure, however, which comparatively few people can enjoy, and which yet ranks high in the total amount spent on it, is foreign travel. An expert in the navigation business has been recently making an estimate of what our tourists will spend aboard this year, and he places the amount at $100,000,000.

From the port of New York there will be 67 sailings of first-class steamships for Europe each month from May to August inclusive. They will carry approximately 21,500 cabin passengers a month, or 86,000 in the four months of the season. Enough tourists will sail earlier or later it is estimated, to bring the total up to 125,000. For their passage this army of travel will pay $31,000,000 and for their living and other expenses a good $70,000,000 or more, or a total of at least $100,000,000.

As the steamship lines are owned almost entirely by foreigners it is near the truth to say that this sum goes into foreign pockets, where it becomes an important factor in the settlement of the balances of foreign trade. Latterly the United States has been sending abroad each year goods to the value of $400,000,000 or $500,000,000 more than the value of the goods it buys abroad. Foreign nations have, therefore, just this large a balance to settle for in some other way than by sending us manufactures in exchange. The $100,000,000 worth of services they give to our tourists helps them out materially in the settlement.—(Chicago Record-Herald.

THE POTENCY OF SMALL CHANGE.

When the crusaders against policy made the statement that the gross daily receipts from the game in Chicago aggregated $30,000, the community was astounded. Thirty thousand dollars in pennies and dimes gambled away each day—impossible. But such is the truth.

Most persons never stop to think of the power of loose change. They hold it so lightly that they fling it about recklessly—and that is the chief reason for its power.

The pennies and dimes give chief support to the churches of the nation. The munificent contribution of the millionaire dwindles to the proportion of the widow's mite when compared with the great total. It is the loose change, carried up to the altar rail, which meets the mortgage, pays the pastor's salary, and sends missionaries to the four corners of the earth.

Go through the books of the big charitable institutions and you will find how dependent they are on the small givers—on loose change. From Sunday school classes, sewing circles, church collections, church entertainments, and the penny boxes which stand in drug and grocery stores comes the greater portion of the revenue. The millionaire philanthropists of the nation would be appalled at their responsibility if the support of the small givers was withdrawn from the charitable institutions.

Dividends on $53,000,000 of National Biscuit stock are paid in dimes and nickels.

Close to $14,000,000 a year in nickels flows into the coffers of the local traction companies and creates a business to attract a Morgan or a Vanderbilt.

In the end it is the housewife's nickel which pays for the harvests of the millions of acres of golden grain.

It is the loose change which keeps the wheels going and this world moving. But how loosely do we throw it about!

The Reign of Corruption

The sensational chapter added to the story of the Missouri legislative corruption by the confession of ex-State Senator Busche contains some impressive morals. Here was a man who had had a "successful" career as a lawmaker, adding to his salary extensive annuities to about $18,000 in five years. In business he had always been considered above reproach, and his honesty as a member of the legislature was not generally doubted. The investigations prosecuted by the circuit attorney Mr. Folk, have apparently come close home to the guilty briberaker, and, with undoubted sorrow for his misdeeds, he has relieved his conscience, and, incidentally, secured some prospect of immunity, by making a clean breast of his part in the wholesale Missouri corruption.

No broad generalization would be justified from this particular case, beyond the conclusion that pilotaking is poor policy for a man and is a good business promise of an honorable career and a conclusive conclusion. But in case this, as in other returns of the Missouri revelations, and with the exposure of corruption in the postoffice department in the Massachusetts legislature, the

ONE PARTICIPANT

A Training School for Domestics.

To the Editor of the Gazette:

The dearth of competent cooks in this city calls for a few timely remarks on the subject of domestic service. As it is now the average housekeeper is a training school for ignorant and often unearthly lazy and vicious women—out of such material a housekeeper who is frequently weighted with the added responsibilities of motherhood is expected to make neat mistresses of the culinary art, one to give $25 or $30 a month for the privilege of ordering them, step by step, and day by day, for weeks and months, with often no result other than an increase of the servant's self-importance and impudence, and as a rule when they have earned something they will leave the mistress who has given her strength and time to equip them, for places where they now have it in their power to earn five dollars more per month.

How long are women going to allow domestic service to remain at its present low basis? If the government will not do it for us, we must build and equip training schools for domestic service, organize a union and then do love to this union by employing none but certificated graduates of the training schools at a fixed scale of wages, graded according to competency. This is the solution of the "servant question" and it should be entered into at once by the women who have homes to make and keep in this country.

"Yes," said The Man in the Box Office, "that man is from the west."

Having assured an up-state patron that while he had no seats for a quarter of a dollar he could sell him an excellent one for a half dollar, the man who takes your money and puts you behind a post went on. "I know that man is from the west, because he paid for his seat with two silver dollars. That's easy to tell.

"Now, here comes an old lady who will want me to tell her the plot of the play, the names of the actors, and will wind up by asking me if the play is moral. She is from Boston, as you can readily see by the handbag which she carries.

"This man is from Philadelphia. How do I know? You must be blind if you can't see that he is from Skeptown. Got it written all over him. Let you even money he belongs to a cricket club over there and has ancestors.

"Where are the native New Yorkers? Now, say, what is the matter with you, anyhow? Surely you know that New Yorkers don't go to the theater this time of the year, except when the same old crowd shows up for a first night. No, sir, the New Yorkers go to the theater during the winter time, and from now on the managers have to depend on out-of-town patronage to pay salaries. Nothing doing with the natives until the roof gardens open."—(New York Press.

Mr. Knox Tells a Story.

A visitor at the office of Attorney General Knox yesterday ventured the opinion that there are many cases of injustice in the world. "You're true," said the attorney general, "and let me cite you a case in point. In a western city a political ring collected one night a large campaign fund, incidentally there was much cheer. Midnight found the boss clinging to a lamppost trying to steal a ride. At that juncture two of the ward leaders approached. For obvious reasons they had not been bidden to the feast, and they never suspected that their manager had $6,000 in his pockets.

"The liquor had not rendered him unconscious of his pocket and wasn't now blinded him to the realization that his henchmen, if they learned the truth, would rob him without compunction. 'Boys,' he said, 'I'm broke. Get in a cab and take me to my hotel and I'll make good.' When they escorted him to the clerk's desk in the hotel, the leader managed to say: 'Give each of those men $1.' Then, handing over to the clerk his bulky roll, he added, as he sank into a chair, 'Take care of this wad until morning.' The two huckers gazed eagerly at the disappearing fortune, and as the safe door shut one of them, doubling the fist at the leader, exclaimed: 'You miserable thief, you've robbed us!'"—(New York Tribune.

Even More So.

Uncle Joe Cannon tells of a constituent of his out in Illinois, who on his recent journey returned from a trip to Europe. The traveler was proudly relating to an admiring group of fellow townsmen the incidents of his trip, among which were visits to Lakes Geneva and Leman, whereupon someone interrupted with:

"Are not Lakes Geneva and Leman synonymous?"

"That's my dear friend," said Cannon's constituent, "I know very well, but are you aware that Lake Leman is the more synonymous of the two?"—(New York Times.

His Arduous Duties.

Captain Sigsbee tells of a conversation he once overheard between two starving wops who were tugging on a hawser. "It's the captain," said the first.

"How'd ye make that out?" asked the second.

"Because he ain't got no work to do and all day to do it in."

The second marine shook his disgust. "You ain't got it right, Jack," said he. "It's the captain of marines."

"How's that?"

"Well, the boy on you say the captain's got nothin' to do and all day to do it in, but the captain of marines he ain't got anything to do and all day to do it in, and a lieutenant of marines to help

DISTRICT ATTORNEY THROWS REPROACHES AT THE GRAND JURY

WORK DONE BY THE BODY CONDEMNED

No further arrests were made by the sheriff's office as a result of the grand jury indictments. Judge Hosea, to whom application was made Wednesday for a new grand jury, stated that he has not yet had time to consider the request, but after looking into the matter will announce his decision as early as possible.

District Attorney Henry Trewbridge yesterday referred to criticisms and attacks made against the recent grand jury and its work. He said

Mr. Trewbridge's Statement.

"I have read the double column editorial in last evening's Telegraph and consider it a most cowardly and inexcusable attack upon the honesty and faithfulness of one of the fairest and most intelligent bodies of men that ever sat in a jury box. It was a subject of general remark by those acquainted with the personnel of the jury that they were exceptionally well-fitted to discharge the important duties they were called upon to perform. The Telegraph stated in its columns when the grand jury was impaneled that a more intelligent and finer appearing body of men had never sat in jury service in the district court. Now, after the jurors have returned to their homes, after performing an unwelcome duty, the Telegraph says they were not 'representative business men,' that they were not 'men capable of discriminating between trifles and matters of importance,' that they are men who show no instinct of fairness and it is also said that they were men so lost to a proper sense of their duty and their oath as that they refused to indict men and accuse them of crime under the law because of their political beliefs. All these charges on the part of the Telegraph are untrue, they are entirely without support and cannot have any object other than to prejudice the community against the faithful prosecution of men who have been indicted for violations of the law and to pervert the minds of possible jurymen who might be called upon in city thats cases.

Asks a Question.

"If the Telegraph is sincere in its accusatory of a new grand jury, why does it dare to reverse the work of the present grand jury, to denounce the work of the men whom it so warmly praised three weeks ago? If it desired criticism to be exposed and rumor of crime to be investigated, why has it not in a single instance during the deliberations of this grand jury lent its aid directly or indirectly through any member of its corporate body or its editorial force to bring to light the slightest evidence to render effectual the labors of the grand jury it now condemns?

"In speaking of the court house scandal the Telegraph says that a prominent citizen has publicly stated matters that should have been before the grand jury. Did the Telegraph call this matter to the attention of the grand jury, as it was the duty of every honest, law-abiding citizen to do? This statement in the editorial is the first intimation the district attorney has ever had on the subject.

As To Court's Order.

"Complaint is made that Judge Cunningham ordered the investigation of the county treasurer's office at large expense. The slightest investigation or inquiry on the part of the Telegraph would have satisfied it that the statute of the state of Colorado imperatively requires the judge of the court to order an investigation of the county treasurer's books by a committee appointed by the court every time a grand jury is impaneled in any county. If this investigation was wrong or useless it is the fault of the law of the state, for which the court is not responsible and the question of 'charges or rumors of any irregularities' has nothing to do with the matter.

"The query, 'Why was a committee not appointed to investigate the city treasurer's office,' is simply absurd, especially in view of the treatment made in the editorial that that office is now being exported at the expense of $ a day. The Telegraph also complains of the expense of the investigation of the county treasurer's accounts but it is notorious that the repeated exporting of the city treasurer's accounts seems to have no effect in clearing the clouds that appear to take constant delight in shrouding the accounts of that office.

"Upon what authority does the Telegraph assert the grand jury had no time to investigate this or that subject referred to in its editorial? The proceedings of the grand jury were conducted in secret. To what extent an investigation of any of these matters was entered upon or what progress was made in relation thereto cannot be known by the public and the Telegraph is entirely unwarranted in assuming, as it does, that the grand jury made no effort to investigate the various matters stated in the editorial and which it is in effect asserted, did not investigate or attempt to investigate. The editorial in one line commends the grand jury on the work in investigating the Colorado Springs police department and in a most the next sentence says that the indictments found by the grand jury are practically useless. It is stated that officials have intimated that a number of indictments have been held back and sensational arrests will be made later and those officials are criticised for not informing the public whom these indictments will affect. If such information has been given by any official it is entirely unwarranted, and, so far as the district attorney knows, no such information has been given.

Regarding "Trifles and Intimations."

"Under the sub-head 'More Trifles and Intimations' the Telegraph complains because the grand jury has found indictments against aldermen for violations of law, which the editorial admits was violated, and attempts to censure the jury for doing its duty in this respect because, as it claims, this law has been repeatedly violated, and it alleges that prominent Democrats, who in former years were so fortunate as to be aldermen of this city, were not indicted by this jury. If the Telegraph will be kind enough to furnish the district attorney with the evidence against these Democrats and will furnish the necessary affidavits in support of a complaint, he will be only too glad to institute criminal prosecution against them.

"As to the district attorney instituting any prosecution against 'scions of ill fame,' it is well known that the district attorney cannot institute proceedings against any person unless someone who possesses personal knowledge swears to the complaint. The district attorney cannot, of his own volition, institute any criminal proceeding unsupported by the oath of someone who will swear to the existence of the necessary facts.

"To sum up, why did not the Telegraph appear before the grand jury while it was in session and make these requests that now come as insinuations and questions with such palpable ignorance and bad grace? Not only is it a cowardly attack upon the grand jury and its work, but it stands a confession, so plain in some respects that it is laughable, of motives of which a journal, supposed to represent the best elements of the community, in sympathy with good citizenship and supporting public officials who are doing their duty, should not be guilty or at least should not make so apparent."

if time permitted, this act should be played in entirety. Of it it has been said, "Beauty seems to hover as a benediction." The pure sequelle tones portraying the love of Tristan and Isolde are forerunners of the glorious death song, "which alone would entitle the composer to immortality," said the speaker.

The audience of last evening was somewhat less than the seating capacity of the hall. Still it was one that will be more than duplicated next Thursday evening, when the second lecture is to take place. "Parsival" has been chosen and it is of even more absorbing interest than the first one presented.

The proceeds of the lectures are to be applied toward the fund for the entertainment of the State Federation of Women's Clubs next fall.

[illegible] DEFEATED WILL BE FINALLY FILED [illegible] DINNER TO DELEGATES [illegible]5

The regular meeting of the City Christian Endeavor union was held last night at the Y. M. C. A. A meeting was also held by the entertainment committee, of which J. M. Hawkins is chairman. The union voted to request the different denominations of the city to hold denominational rallies and receptions for the delegates to the Christian Endeavor convention in Denver, who will visit Colorado Springs on Wednesday, July 15, and a committee, consisting of L. L. Radford, Walter Winkler and George Perry, was appointed to look after this arrangement.

It was also decided to hold a big rally and reception Sunday afternoon, July 5, in this city, before the convention, and some noted speaker will be secured to address the meeting to be held. H. R. Chapman, Miss Lake and Miss Kennedy were appointed a committee to make the arrangements for the rally and reception.

From information received lately it is expected that upwards of 2,000 visitors will be in Colorado Springs a day or two before the opening of the convention in Denver and it is proposed to hold a reception, and Miss Aitken, H. R. Chapman and H. S. Fairchild were appointed a committee to look after the matter.

The union also selected E. H. Livermore, J. M. Hawkins and E. C. Shaver to meet with the committee recently appointed by the chamber of commerce to arrange for the reception of the visitors and to take care of them while in the city. The two committees will act together in all matters which may arise in regard to securing rooms and board. Henry Russell Wray and J. F. Lilly will act for the chamber of commerce.

J. M. Hawkins, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that much had been accomplished by this committee, although there was a great amount of work ahead. The committee has been organized with Dr. Grey, vice chairman, and J. Hales, secretary.

Replies have been received from hotels and boarding houses which have agreed to entertain 1,500 delegates. It is expected that there will be 15,000 visitors during the week, July 14 to 21, and it is necessary that all hotels, boarding and rooming houses that have not notified the committee of the number of delegates they can entertain shall do so at once.

[illegible] "Tristan and Isolde" [illegible] Enjoyable Musicale

The first of the two Wagnerian lectures arranged by the Colorado Springs Federation of Women's Clubs, was given in Perkins hall last evening.

Rubin Goldmark, by whom the lectures are given, needs no introduction to a Colorado Springs audience. That, after flattering European triumphs, he returns once more to the Rocky Mountain region for a time, has been a subject for congratulation among the musically inclined people for weeks. So, that Mr. Goldmark received an ovation, was not surprising. Without exception, he was a desire to give expression to his appreciation of his unusual talent as a composer and lecturer, as well as their pleasure at his return.

A masterful presentation of Wagner's wonderful "Tristan and Isolde," that very unique, impassioned drama, its recurring motifs, now joyous and high, now so weirdly sad, as brought out in the music, was finely pointed out in the clear and well chosen sentences of the lecturer.

The story of Tristan, "the flower of chivalry," was vividly told in the richly woven chords of melody carefully selected.

Of the second act of "Tristan and Isolde," Mr. Goldmark remarked that

CARRIAGE MEN ARE TAKING OUT LICENSES

Under the terms of the carriage and hack license law now before the city council, a number of carriage and hack owners appeared at the office of the city clerk yesterday and took out licenses. The new law changes the date of the issuance of the licenses to August 1, and stipulates that the license for the time intervening from the passage of the law till that time shall cost $5. It is this amount which is being paid. On August 1 the license for the next year will fall due. There are usually about 130 licenses issued for hacks and express wagons, annually, and about 30 issued for carriages during the same time.

Judge Lewis Rules on Important Points. E. Hill Still on the Witness Stand.

The interesting feature yesterday in the Cripple Creek case was the decision of Judge Lewis regarding an objection to the introduction of testimony tending to show that the $15,000 appropriated out of the treasury of the Golden Cycle Co. had been misappropriated and used for purposes other than the legitimate defense of the suit. The plaintiffs began Wednesday to introduce testimony to this effect, when they were met by an objection from counsel for the defendants.

Attorney Waldron, speaking for the defendants, maintained that the complaint did not contain any allegations that the sum was appropriated fraudulently, was exorbitant, or was used for any other purpose than the legitimate defense of the suit. Judge Lewis, after some argument, decided, however, that he would admit the testimony. The question came up again yesterday and the same objection was raised by the defendant's counsel. At the time Judge Lewis stated that the parties would have to come to some understanding on the point and instructed them to agree upon a stipulation which would settle the question. This the attorneys for the plaintiffs refused to do and put another question along the objectionable line to L. E. Hill, who was on the witness stand. Objection was raised by the other side and the objection was sustained by Judge Lewis. The plaintiffs then agreed to stipulate, according to the instructions of the court. The stipulation agreed upon was as follows:

The Stipulation.

"It is hereby stipulated that the sum of $15,000 was paid out by the treasurer of the Golden Cycle Co. L. E. Hill, under the direction of the president, John T. Milliken, without any previous formal or informal action by the board of directors, said sum to be used in the defense of this action." Under this stipulation the plaintiffs will be compelled to confine themselves to the argument of the legal proposition involved in the denial that Messrs. Milliken and Hill had a right to appropriate any funds whatever for the defense of the suit. The word "previous" contained in the stipulation does not carry to implication that subsequent action was not taken by the board of directors. Such action is alleged by the defendants and it is claimed further by them that subsequent action legalized the payment of the sum mentioned the same as if the action had been taken previous to its payment.

General Manager L. E. Hill of the Golden Cycle Co. was on the witness stand all of yesterday and will be called again this morning, when the court convenes at 10 o'clock. Court adjourned yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

"The Deacon," a delightful little comedy drama, was presented at the Opera house last night by the members of the Henager's Business College Dramatic club. The audience which witnessed the performance was fairly large and very enthusiastic.

The play was well staged and the local Thespians who displayed the rolls acquitted themselves with credit all the way through and in some instances with rare skill. Especially was this true of O. L. Burch, who took the role of "Pete," a colored servant. He kept the life of the play up all the time and really did work worthy of one who makes more pretentious. Deacon Thornton was portrayed by F. J. Wright to good effect and Ame la Fawcett, Mrs. Thornton's sister and the inamored of the deacon, was very well characterized by Miss Kate L. Heise. E. J. Kersey made a good "heavy villian" in the portrayal of the wicked character of George Darrant, alias Matt Wheeler, while Beacon Sargeant showed considerable talent as George Graef, the victim and later the hero. Pearl Walls made a chic maid in the character of Daisy. Mrs. Thompson, the deacon's sister-in-law, and "Helen," her daughter, represented by Alta Cannon and Lillian Butzin, were central figures which were well characterized. Other roles were taken with success by T. H. Winterburn, E. J. Hampton, Harry Leighton and Little Ruth Breor, while Anna McAndrew made an attractive widow in the role of the deserted wife which, though quite difficult, was creditably handled.

After the first act, Mr. P. H. Morgan sang a sailor's love song to the enjoyment of the audience and his clear tenor voice was so well received that he was compelled to respond to an encore. O. L. Jeancon rendered a splendid barytone solo after the third act which also drew forth loud applause and Mr. Jeancon responded with a short love ditty.

SEVERAL SEVEN MOVEMENTS FOR DISTRESS ROADS AND PAVED STREETS

At a largely attended meeting at the chamber of commerce last evening, resolutions were adopted commending the Good Roads association in its efforts to obviate the dust nuisance and that association pledged itself to experiment with oil on a complete block in the business section of the city as soon as the advice of expert T. P. White of California is obtained. The advocates of oil built for business streets suggested that 2,000 lineal feet on Tejon street and several side streets be paved.

Mr. Donaldson referred to Colorado Springs and suburbs having the best natural roads in the world and said that they were because of the faithful hate now, the dust, the worst cured for. He pledged for the Good Roads association and in making a test of one complete block after the suggestion and co-operation of Mr. White, who is considered the best authority on oil treated roads in the country, is received. H. T. Reed, former city engineer, firmly advocated an oil test at once. He suggested that the experiment should be exhaustive, that it was essential to know the wrong way of doing things as well as to be conversant with the right way. He said, "While I am sure the oil treatment will be a success, the only way to find out which is the best way is by practical demonstration. Any amount of funds should be justified in laying the dust even if it had to be repeated yearly, but I do not think this likely."

All Were Interested.

Moses Heath for the Business Men's association, Chapman for the Riding and Driving club and Chisholm for the real estate exchange, signified their keen interest in behalf of their respective organizations. Secretary Henry Russell Wray for the chamber of commerce offered the co-operation of the chamber to the respective organizations and pledged financial assistance, just before adjournment. Mr. Chisholm offered the following motion which was heartily received and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the action of the Good Roads association in inducing the dust nuisance, in seeking to abate it and in inviting Theodore P. White, the road expert of California, to visit this city on a trip of investigation be commended. Further, that we request our respective organizations to give the Good Roads association their public and financial support."

Colorado Springs must probably will have a system of dust oil streets in the near future, if motion taken at the joint meeting at the chamber of commerce last evening is any indication. The plan is in experiment with oil, and a resolution was adopted pledging support locally and financially to the Good Roads association in its endeavor to settle the dust nuisance along all the principal streets.

The joint committee with directors of the directors of the chamber of commerce and committees from the real estate exchange, the Business Men's association, the Good Roads association, the Riding and Driving clubs and citizens generally. The chamber was filled with a large and representative gathering, testifying to the interest taken in the subject. Among those present in behalf of their respective organizations were: D. V. Donaldson, Clarence P. Hodge, J. F. Lilly, T. L. Rouse, W. H. Adams, H. W. Chisholm, C. L. Hemming, C. C. Heath, E. W. Warsop, J. K. Murdoch, H. T. Chapman, Dow Felts and H. A. Reid.

John Voorhees introduced the meeting in a most interesting manner regarding the deposit of rock asphalt in northern Colorado. He reviewed his investigations made when this rock is used in the pavements at St. Louis, Buffalo and other eastern cities. He said that the asphalt is found in inexhaustible quantities in Colorado and that it is the best asphalt in the world. He said that the asphalt is found in inexhaustible quantities in Colorado and that it is the best asphalt in the world. He said that the asphalt is found in inexhaustible quantities in Colorado and that it is the best asphalt in the world.

Mr. Donaldson explained the system of oil sprinkling recommended by the best experts.

[illegible] Association Formed and Plans Made for a Picnic

The El Paso County Humane association is now a reality. The organization was completed yesterday afternoon when officers were elected. The election of officers was held in the afternoon and was conducted with the selection of George W. Minges, president. It is believed that Mrs. Jessie W. Holmes, secretary, and Colonel Jacob Gruber, treasurer, will serve until the first Tuesday in next September. This time has been agreed upon as the date for the regular annual meeting, at which time it is the intention to elect the officers for the succeeding year. A committee consisting of Mrs. Minges, Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Dr. Bancroft was appointed to draft by-laws for the association. A committee consisting of Mrs. Gruber, Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Dr. Bancroft was appointed to solicit memberships. Mrs. Gruber and Mrs. Holmes were appointed a committee to arrange for a picnic.

A membership fee of $1 was agreed upon. It was further planned, however, that persons unable to afford only annual dues, if so proposed to pay the matter finally passed upon. A set of by-laws were also adopted to apply until that time, when the matter will be brought up for consideration.

The meeting, which was held in the chambers of Judge Cunningham, was attended by about 50 of the attorneys of the city. Considerable enthusiasm was shown and it is hoped that the association is now on a firm basis. A supper will be arranged by the members of the committee at one of the hotels of the city, within a short time, it is proposed to have several addresses of interest to be delivered in the evening.

K. T. REDGE ARRIVES TO ASSUME CHARGE OF THE ANTLERS HOTEL

Louis A. Kittredge, the new manager of the Antlers hotel, accompanied by Mrs. Kittredge, arrived last evening and registered at the Antlers. Mr. Kittredge stated that it was too early to announce any plans that he may have in connection with the hotel, but verified the telegram of last week to the effect that he desired all the present employes to remain. Mr. Kittredge will not assume the management of the hotel until June 1. Manager Munroe will remain until Mr. Kittredge has become thoroughly familiar with his duties and knows the house. The retiring manager has not yet announced his future plans, but it is believed he will take the management of the new and magnificent St. Francis hotel at San Francisco.

Mr. Kittredge is a fine-appearing man, about 45 years of age, with white hair and white hair. He was manager of the Antlers from 1884 to 1891 and is well known in Colorado Springs.

AN ALARMING FIRE AT COLORADO CITY

Fire was discovered last night at 11 o'clock in the grocery store of J. J. Abendschein, 1031 Colorado avenue, Colorado City, and an alarm immediately turned in. The fire department of Colorado City quickly responded and in a few minutes had the fire under control, in spite of the high wind and the character of the building where the fire broke out. The damage to the building is estimated at $250 and the stock of groceries somewhere between $400 and $500. The building is located among several others, all frame structures, and the danger of a general conflagration was very great for a few moments.

E. H. SOTHERN IN "IF I WERE KING."

In "If I Were King," E. H. Sothern gives us the great delight of the dramatic season. His appearance has been eagerly awaited, and he will be enthusiastically welcomed at the Opera house on next Tuesday evening. Sothern visits this city in his itinerary embracing 30 towns, which he plays on his way to and from the Pacific coast. This marks his farewell appearance in "If I Were King," as next year he devotes his season between New York and London in a new play. This is Sothern's first visit to the extreme west in over 10 years, and he is making the occasion a noteworthy event. He brings on tour his entire organization complete, including the magnificent accouterments of the play, the massive scenic investiture, and the large dramatic organization of principals and supernumeraries. It is promised that every iota of the gorgeous effects that have made Sothern's production of the play so conspicuous in the large cities of the east will be seen here. Not the change of a single individual has been made in the cast. Sothern's scenic effects take up two carloads. He carries the production complete, even furnishing his own stage curtain of scarlet plush. Cecilia Loftus, George W. Wilson, Margaret Illington, Rowland Buckstone, William Harris, Stephen Wright and every member of the cast who plays the characters of "If I Were King" exclusively, are with Mr. Sothern. The seat sales are now on sale at the following prices: Parquet, $2.50; dress circle, $2; balcony, $1.50; gallery, 60c.

HEROES ACE WINS FOR MILWAUKEE

Keenan Vs. Villeman the Feature.

Milwaukee Man Wins Out in the Struggle by a Score of 4 to 2 --The Game.

Tuesday's Darlings didn't do a thing but today Tuesday's game, the second of the series, by a score of 4 to 2 and was by no means indicative of the merits of the two clubs. Old Reliable up on the pyramond. The real man a pitchers battle from start to finish with Lenna of the visitors superior. Kenna gave but six hits, all of the single variety and pretty well scattered. Villeman, on the other hand, allowed nine hits, good for a total of 15 bases. Two of these hits, a triple and a home run, coming in the third started the stick work of the visitors in earnest and after that they found Villeman for hits when they were needed.

The fielders on both teams steadied down and a good game was put up on both sides. Cockman, the visitors' third baseman, was again slightly off, letting an easy ball go through him. Lucia made a bum throw in the second to catch Everitt at second as a result of which the loca captain took third base. A bad wind filled the players eyes full of dust and it was remarkable that no more errors were made. The game was greatly drawn out on account of the wind.

The Beginning.

The locals started the fireworks in the first when Everitt walked, gained third on Lucia's error and scored on Nill's out. O'Neill's triple and McVicker's home run started the Crowns in the third. These two runs gave them a lead that the Moneyed Men could not overcome. The Angels sent a man across the plate again in the sixth when Kenna got a pass, advanced to second on McVicker's single and scored on Cockman's double. In the seventh O'Neil hit safely stole second and when McVicker knocked a hot one down past Granville, scored. The ball followed the base line on the bounce. Granville was playing at considerable distance off third but ran in to take the chance. He threw out his right hand to get it but the ball fooled him and went on, skipping over his arm. Granville was exempted from an error. The locals got another tally in the eighth. Fleming drew a single and when Francks knocked one to Cockman, Fleming was ready to take second. Cockman missed the ball, however. When Congalton sent a hot one to first Fleming scored. Congalton's hit looked good for a double and "Con" started to take the sack that was coming to him, but O'Neil lost no time in fielding the ball and Congalton was caught at second. Cat-ing nabbing the put out and Thornton a-ville. For a time the result was in doubt as the fans were hoping for another of those ninth inning victories but the locals couldn't connect with the horsehide as delivered by one Kenna and that's all there was to it.

The visitors came near getting another score in the first when "Tip" O'Neil walked, stole second and Duffy hit safely. O'Neil being a fast sprinter, endeavored to come home but died by the Fleming-Harnagle route. Attendance, 1,800.

GASTON AND RADCLIFFE DO SOME GOOD WORK

Holly Did Star Playing for Peoria.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, May 21.—The Grizzlies and Distillers played a lively game at Broadway park today, the visitors again being worsted by a score of 5 to 3. Hartsell, the Cubs' right fielder, did a great stunt at the bat. Out of four bases on balls given by the Peoria team's pitcher, Hartsell is credited with three of them. Gaston is proving strong at the bat and Radcliffe isn't wonder, notwithstanding his errors. He goes after everything that offers a possible chance of landing and is working more for the Denver team's good than he is for his average. Holly, Peoria's short stop, is a star player and gets every ball that goes his way. Today he landed some of the hottest of hot ones.

In the first inning neither side could score. In the second McHale hit safely, Gaston singled and put McHale on second, and Radcliffe's grounder to right field sent McHale over the plate and put Gaston on third. Latimer's out put Radcliffe on second. Eyler made a lovely hit, good for first, and scored Gaston and Radcliffe. Delehanty's out retired the side. Friend opened for Peoria in the third and singled. Thiel went out, and on Wolfe's out Friend gained second. Thiel hoit the stick and on a passed ball Friend went to third. Thiel singled and Friend scored. Wilson was at bat but Thiel was put out while stealing second and retired the side.

Radcliffe batted a lovely one that went way over by the fence and scored a home run in the fourth. Latimer went out and Eyler walked. Delehanty also went out, and Dundon was hit by a ball and given first. Jones batted and the ball hit Eyler, who was going from second to third. This retired the side, as Eyler was out for interfering with the ball. For several minutes it looked serious for Eyler, but he was game an went back in the box. Gaston knocked a beauty, good for two sacks in the fifth and Radcliffe made a nice hit, bringing Gaston home. Latimer was at the bat, and Radcliffe was put out, stealing second.

In the seventh it was one, two, three and out with Friend, Thiel and Wolfe. Dundon was the first of the Cubs that went out. Jones made a hit and a good one, but owing to Stewart's good work in stopping the ball, it gave Jones only first. Jones was put out stealing second. It seemed fatal to attempt stealing bases, as several other players had met the same fate as Jones during the game. Hartsell was given a base on balls for the third time during the game. McHale fouled, and retired the side.

Wall started off in the ninth and singled and Holly's out put Wall on second. Friend's hit sent Wall to third and Tebald's three-bagger scored Wall and Friend. Kessler batted for Wolfe in the last half of the ninth, but went out. Thiel retired the side on a foul.

FOUND THE BASES

Another try with Milwaukee today.

Game called at 3:45 o'clock.

Today is ladies' day. Ladies are admitted to the grounds free of charge.

Every Tuesday and every Friday is ladies' day and the usual courtesies are shown the fair sex whether they are accompanied by escorts or not.

It is Harry Newmeyer's turn to K. O. today but Curtis or Jones "with the smile that won't come off," may go in.

Duffy said last night that McPherson would do the honors for the visitors. McPherson is considered about the best of the Milwaukee twirlers.

Duffy seems to have secured a strong pitching staff this year. The loss of "Tommy" Adkins is not felt as keenly as one might suppose.

Manager Burns is expecting to hear from the National association in regard to the Lumley deal in a few days. He has no doubt but that Lumley will be awarded to the local club when the affair has been thoroughly investigated.

Meanwhile Swacina still roams in the center garden, catching all the surplus flies that come that way. "Swatsky's" little turn of Wednesday when he tried to stop the ball "cornings" his back, is the only thing that has marred the fielding of this clever player this season.

Francks has fallen off some in his batting. When the season started he did great work but now he strikes at most anything. Yesterday he could easily have walked instead of being struck out. Cut out the high balls.

Villeman is unquestionably a good stick artist but he needs practice in running. In the third yesterday Villeman ought to have scored when Lucia let a ball get by. A good runner would probably have crossed the plate.

Duffy was caught napping at first yesterday. Villeman and Everitt exchanged the ball several times, the last time catching the Milwaukee captain. Of course Duffy didn't see it that way but Kelly said "out."

That thing the fans know Kelly will be on to stage with a mono ogue turn. He could surely hand the crowd a bunch of wit. By the way, has anybody guessed Kelly's nationality.

Hugh Duffy thinks he has a wonder in "Tip" O'Neil, who has just joined the team. O'Neil is surely showing up well with the stick and in the field.

Duffy has a new twirler who may be put in for a few innings in one of the remaining games. The pitcher's name is Seay and outside of being nervous before a crowd, is considered by Duffy to be a good one.

Hugh Duffy is a lucky man. There is no doubt about that. To take a team away from home for so many games as he has and then get second place, Duffy ought to get the glad hand when he returns to the brewery town. Castilion's Braves are heading the American association, but Duffy has the heards of the Milwaukee fans and ought to get the flivver when he goes home.

"Grandpa, what's the score?" was heard among the bleacher pleasantries yesterday.

McVicker and O'Neil are considered the best Milwaukee batsmen outside of Duffy.

Congalton was true to himself yesterday and did not miss out on the hitting proposition. Congalton has a hit with himself that he will make a hit every game. So far he has lost a pickel. He failed to get in a hit in only one game.

Granville was the star with the willow yesterday, however, among the Moneyed Gentlemen. Granville got two clean ones out of four times up.

There haven't been any kicks registered to date on Tom Fleming's stick work, either. Fleming's present rate, if continued for long ought to easily put him in the .300 class.

The visitors comments on the weather during the late storm: "It—(k—i—d)& Kelly's."

WORCESTER'S ILL HEALTH

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 21.—Secretary Root received a cablegram today from Governor Taft, saying that Prof. Dean C. Worcester, a member of the Philippine commission, had been granted a leave of absence for six months and that he would come to this country for his health. Professor Worcester probably will undergo a surgical operation when he reaches the United States.

HEAD OF WESTERN FIELDERS

Below are given the fielding averages of the players in the Western league compiled and including last Saturday's games. Al of the averages are not compiled from the official records but the list is substantially correct and shows the standing of the different men in the different positions. Only the regular players on each team are put up for the different positions. Everitt and Nill are both second in their respect ve classes, while Fleming stands first in the list of left fielders. Up to last Sunday he had made no error. Lumley, Congalton, Francks and Granville stand well up in the lists. Struckle leads the catchers while the entire staff of local pitchers together with Swacina were last Saturday at the top of the bunch with a clean record. The table shows that the locals can field as well as bat.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE SHORT LINE

Interesting Statement Contained in Wall Street Journal, Showing the Result of Operations During Last Year.

The Wall Street Journal of May 19 could the following statement of the Cripple Creek Short Line, showing the fiscal results from a year's for the 12 months, December 1, 1901, to November 30, 1902, as follows:

Earnings:
Freight	$536,444
Passenger	247,109
Mail	3,874
Express	9,037
Miscellaneous	134
	$796,350
Expenses operating	400,720
Net earnings	$395,630
Add miscellaneous income	1,063
Total net earnings	$396,693
Fixed charges:
Interest on bonds, etc.	$48,137
Taxes	77,067
War revenue taxes	49
	$125,253
Available for sinking fund for same period	$271,440
Net surplus	$ 91,720

(Note—Rate war during seven months of the above period. At the present time the "Short Line" carries about 50 per cent out-bound freight, 41 per cent in-bound freight, 75 per cent of the suburban passenger and 35 per cent of the passenger business on its steam lines. It will increase its business. It now shows substantial earnings on its common stock and will continue to do so.)

The following official statement accompanies the figures:

The Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek District railway, operating the new well-equipped railway between Cripple Creek and Colorado Springs, was built by the gold mine owners of Colorado on account of the ore rates charged by railroads forming the Denver & South-western. In many instances the rates charged gave the railroads more profits than were received by the owners from the operation of their mines. After repeated unsuccessful attempts to obtain relief from the railroads, as a last resort, the mine owners were compelled to build and equip a railroad to protect the business of operating their gold mines. This railroad has been in successful operation since 1901. It was subjected to the most severe rate war, during seven months, that it could possibly be waged, finally resulting in a settlement based upon the concession by both sides of the reduction of freight rates originally asked for. If this reduction had been granted in the first instance the "Short Line" would not have been built.

To show to the public that the rates are now high enough, the following data are given concerning the Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek District Railway Co.:

Capital stock:
Preferred	$ 800,000
Common	1,200,000
Total	$2,000,000
Bonds:
First mortgage bonds	$1,002,000
Second mortgage bonds	261,000
First consolidated mortgage bonds	1,029,000
Total outstanding	$3,242,000

First mortgage bonds bear date of January 1, 1900, and run 20 years at 6 per cent; original amount $2,000,000, of which $438,000 have been paid and cancelled from sinking fund; 5 per cent of gross earnings of each year is set aside for that purpose, and should hereafter retire from $40,000 to $45,000 of these bonds annually.

The second mortgage bond issue was originally $1,000,000, 6 per cent 20-year bonds, but it is proposed to retire this issue as soon as possible by giving in exchange therefor first consolidated mortgage bonds, bond for bond. About $400,000 of second mortgage bonds could be exchanged for the first mortgage at maturity, or before when exchange can be made bond for bond.

One million dollars first consolidated bonds were set aside to be used to take up the outstanding second mortgage bonds. As has been stated above, $738,000 second mortgage bonds have already been taken up under this plan. Of consolidated bonds to the amount of $823,000 were set aside to pay the floating debt of the company. Already $650,000 have been used for that purpose, leaving $843,000 now for sale. When this latter amount shall have been sold, the total amount of bonds of all classes, outstanding will be $3,585,000 the annual interest on which, at 5 per cent, will amount to $179,250.

The net earnings for the six months ending December 31, 1902, were 2240,305.35 or $67,146.35 more than the interest for the whole year on the entire bond issue.

The proceeds from the sale of the $738,000 first consolidated mortgage bonds remaining in the hands of the company will pay the floating debt and leave the company with no outstanding obligations except 249 bonds and the car trust notes amounting to $91,000, which are being paid off at the rate of $5000 per month out of earnings.

The company owns equipment to the value of $604,000, most of which has been paid for in full. The car trust above mentioned covers the freight cars and a few of the passenger cars. The property owned by the company is as follows:

Miles of railway: Main line branches and sidings, 70.04 miles, of which three miles is electric railway and nine miles is both steam and electric railway.

Siding, 14.07 miles. Total miles of track, 84.11 miles.

The road is the most substantially built line in Colorado, and is the best equipped. It is owned and controlled by the owners of the principal mines of Cripple Creek. The business of its stockholders alone is sufficient to make the road a paying proposition.

The road is conceded to be the finest scenic line in Colorado, if not the finest in the United States.

Colorado Springs is the greatest tourist center of Colorado. It is estimated that at least 80,000 tourists visited the city during the year 1902. A very large portion of these tourists went to Cripple Creek over the "Short Line." The earning from the tourist business is a very important item each year and will grow rather than decrease. The net earnings from this source should pay more than one-half of the fixed charges each year.

It will be seen from the foregoing that the company does not have to depend entirely for its support upon the mining business at Cripple Creek, although it could safely do so. Those most familiar with Cripple Creek mining camps say this district will be furnishing business to the railroad long after the dates of maturity of the Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek District railway's first consolidated mortgage bonds.

The lines of the C. S. & C. C. D. Ry. form a most complete system of railway. Colorado Springs, the eastern terminus, has a population, in the city and suburbs, of about 35,000, and the Cripple Creek district, its western territory, has a population of about 40,000. The terminals at each end are complete and very little expense in making extensions will be necessary for years to come. The 12 miles of electric lines in the Cripple Creek district reach all the principal towns of the district and do a large suburban business.

EASTERN MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Report from J. S. Bache & Co., to Otis & Hough, Bankers and Brokers, 127 Pike's Peak Ave.

New York, May 21.—Two contending forces were at work in the market at the opening. Heavy liquidation by speculators, owing to margin calls sent out last night, and buying by banking and foreign interests upon a reduction in the Bank of England rate of discount. Considering the market as a whole the liquidation was well taken and the buying power preponderated. The reduction in the Bank of England rate to 3½ per cent, is the first change since 1902, when, in October, the rate was advanced from 3 per cent. to 4 per cent. This is ample evidence that the managers look for material ease in the rates of money for some time to come. The market continued firm and advanced in the afternoon, closing at top prices of the day.

McIntyre & Marshall—It turns out that yesterday's break in the market, which was so general a surprise, was mostly the result of some forced liquidation of a large line of stocks carried by several large operators, together with the selling by others who had become somewhat involved in the cotton speculation, and the additional pressure from the bear element and frightened selling by small speculators, who had an idea that some financial trouble was imminent. There was a continuance of it during the first half hour today, but the market was so well supported by good buying by investment and some of the banking interests that it turned up sharply when shorts began covering, and it was evident that the bottom had dropped out of the wild bull speculation in the cotton market. Stocks appear to have passed into stronger hands and with the cessation of gold exports and better weather and crop news, the general market appears to be in a better posit on to respond to any bullish developments.

CHICAGO GRAIN & PROVISIONS.

Furnished by Logan & Bryan to Otis & Hough, Bankers and Brokers, 127 Pike's Peak Ave.

Chicago, May 21.—Wheat—Liverpool, ¼ to ½ lower. Paris and Antwerp holiday. The market here was active and weak. There were perhaps fewer scattered crop damage complaints and the Price Current statement that the drouth area had been lessened and wheat prospects fully maintained, were bearish factors. Generally showery conditions in the west and the weakness in coarse grains in consequence, were also depressing influences. The cables were weak and the cash situation slow. Broomhall estimates Argentine shipments at 2,000,000 bushels, and says the estimate of the Indian surplus is being increased. California is still without rain. There is enough uncertainty about crop conditions, we think, to make a good scalping market, at least, and on further weakness would buy wheat for a rally. Estimated cars, 25.

Corn—Liverpool, ¼ higher. Market was fairly active and weak. The Price Current says early planted corn is in good stand. Planting continues with little change in the situation. The showery weather was a bearish influence, and with liberal country offerings and moderate demand, there was quite a good deal of selling pressure. There was no particular feature to the buying. Estimated cars, 255.

Oats—Market was active and weak. The showery conditions through the middle west was the bearish influence, and it brought about quite a general liquidation. The Price Current says oats are fair to good west of the Mississippi; eastward, poor to fair. The tendency of the week was somewhat toward improvement. As the buying lately has been almost wholly on crop conditions, the feeling was today much weaker. There is nothing in the cash situation that is urgent either way. Estimated cars, 140.

Provisions—Market was weak and lower. Receipts of hogs 66,000 head, against 68,000 head last year. There was quite a little pressure from the scattered liquidation and easier prices at the yards. The packing situation outside of Chicago is even weaker than it is here, and outside packers are likely to sell more or less product in this market. The horrors of a good quality and there is a good profit in cutting them at present prices. Demand is poor. We still think provisions should be sold on hand spots.

COLORADO CITY, MAY 14.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY ASSURED
ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR PURCHASE OF SITE FOR CARNEGIE LIBRARY

The city council of Colorado City met in special session last evening to arrange for the purchase of the site for the Carnegie library. Mayor Hill Jones was instructed to appoint a board of trustees to consist of six members, with himself an ex-officio member of the board. He will take the matter up immediately and present the names of his appointees for the approval of the council at its next regular meeting.

The report of the special committee, consisting of H. C. Kinsman, William Clifford and John B. Stephen, appointed to secure the $600 necessary to remove the Christian church building from the site, stated that the money was all raised and ready to be paid over as soon as it was needed.

Immediately upon the ratification of the board of trustees which will be appointed, warrants will be drawn for the $2,000 for the site and placed in the bank, together with the deed for the property, to await the action of Mr. Carnegie, who will be notified of the action. A special ordinance has been passed providing for the sum of 1,000 to be appropriated annually to the support of the institution. It was suggested at the meeting last night that President Beyle of the chamber of commerce should be the one to notify Mr. Carnegie of the action taken by the city council, inasmuch as he has been the one through whom all the correspondence relative to the library has been carried on.

To cover all the matters pertaining to the library and the site the proper resolutions and ordinances have been passed by the council and all that remains to secure the money is to formally purchase the site, for which the fund has been appropriated.

REAL ESTATE ACTIVITY IN COLORADO CITY

ABUNDANT WATER SUPPLY FOR COUNTY POOR FARM

County Commissioners F. L. Rouse and W. H. Faigel inspected the water supply at the county poor farm yesterday. A well has recently been dug on the premises for the purpose of supplying drinking water and a system of pipes has been made, connecting this water with the house. The water in the reservoir was unfit for drinking. During the summer months it is used by the boys of the city for swimming purposes and its distance from the poor house itself made it impossible for those in charge to prevent its being used for such purpose. The completion of the well and the putting in of the pipe system gives an excellent water supply for the poor house.

A visit was also made yesterday to the headwaters of the stream supplying the fill basin. The commissioners report, as a result of this visit, that the supply of water for the summer will be ample.

INJUNCTION AGAINST THE CITY IS FILED

In the district clerk's office yesterday a signed decree was filed granting the injunction against Colorado Springs on the application of Colorado City, in the water rate case tried several weeks ago. The injunction was issued verbally at the time of the trial and for all practical purposes was binding from that time. The papers in the appeal of the case to the supreme court, are about completed and that tribunal will be finally called upon to determine the question between the two cities.

F. M. Priestly has resigned the presidency because of ill health, and has been succeeded by Frank McDonough, formerly vice president.

Rev. H. W. Moore of Denver, is the new vice president and J. Stanley Edwards, general agent of the Aetna Life Insurance company for Colorado, is the new secretary and treasurer.

The Rev. B. T. Vincent, D. D., now of Greeley, Colo., is the new superintendent of instruction. Dr. Vincent commenced Chautauqua work in 1874 in association with his brother, Bishop J. H. Vincent, now of Geneva, Switzerland, who was the founder of the famous institution together with Lewis Miller, of Akron, O.

The Rocky Mountain Chautauqua comes here itself highly favored in securing Dr. Vincent because of his many years of experience in similar work at Chautauqua, N. Y., as well as at Chester Heights, Pa., Lakeside, Ohio, and a number of other places. The Chautauqua program opens on Tuesday, July 14, and extends over the succeeding three weeks.

AN ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION

Resident, A Posteriori, Might Appeal to These Children—Board of Trade.

Special to the Gazette.

Victor, May 21.—Truant Officer Reedy swore out warrants this morning in the county court for the arrest of several school children in this city, whose ages range from 11 to 15 years. The warrants were given to the deputy sheriff to serve and the offenders will be given a hearing before Judge Frost in the county court next Monday morning. Several of the children belong to the most prominent families of Victor. The trouble arose over a rule enforced in the schools of the district that no pupil shall chew gum during school hours. So persistently have two pupils violated this rule, that Miss Howard, principal of the Washington school, threatened to punish on the gum which was found and compel the pupils to chew it. The rule, however, has never been enforced. Just before school was dismissed yesterday, it was noised around among the pupils that the rubbing was going to be used, and when Miss Howard and another teacher left the room for their hats they were pelted with rocks and onions by several of the school children, this warfare being continued for several blocks. The arrests followed this morning. The trouble has aroused the citizens of Victor, and it has had a most ill feeling effect upon the rest of the scholars.

Board of Trade.

A meeting of the Victor board of trade was held in the city hall and among other things discovered, which is of interest to the city was that the body is still very much alive, and has done considerable good work in the past few

ALLEGED MURDER NEAR CRIPPLE CREEK

Former Dance Hall Employe Was a Poor Marksman—Arthur L. Corbin Goes to Yale.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, May 21.—Between 3 and 4 this morning, Frank Rogers, a bartender and former dance hall employe, in a fit of jealous rage, took three shots at a woman known as Irene Rogers. None of the shots took effect upon the one intended.

Rose DuPerry, another dance hall girl, who was watching the fight, was wounded and for some time it was thought she would die from the effects.

Rogers, after making an unsuccessful attempt at murder, fled, and the officers have been making a diligent search for him all day, but up to a late hour tonight, without success. He is believed to be somewhere in the mountains between here and Canon City.

The woman who received the bullet is resting very easily at the hospital tonight, and her injuries are not considered at all serious, although she is suffering a great deal.

Board of Visitors.

The board of visitors which consists of Dr. W. F. Liggett, chairman; Rev. Father C. J. Cory, Mrs. J. M. Finn of Cripple Creek, Rev. J. H. Forrester and Mrs. Jos. C. Donahue of Victor, and Mrs. Dr. Catherine Poly of Hilton, who were appointed by Judge Frost to constitute the board and visit the different public institutions and report upon their condition and manner in which they are managed, started out this morning on a round of inspection.

They first visited the county jail, and then the city jail, but owing to the chairman, Dr. Liggett, having an operation to perform at the Sisters' hospital, further visits were postponed until some time later this week.

Corbin's New Position.

Arthur L. Corbin, who was for some time principal of the Cripple Creek High school and lately has been practicing law in this city, has been tendered a very flattering offer from Yale university. Mr. Corbin being tendered the position of instructor in the law department at Yale, which he has accepted. He will leave shortly to take up his new duties.

Mr. Corbin is well and favorably known in the district and his numerous friends, while pleased to learn of the flattering offer made him, deeply regret his departure from the district.

Howell Held in Denver.

Sheriff Henry Robertson returned to this city from Denver without his prisoner, Edward G. Howell, the sheriff saying the federal authorities claimed Howell, and secured a writ of the federal court. This, it is understood, however, will relieve the bondsmen in the city from any responsibility. Howell is still confined in the city jail at Denver, and it is not probable that bail will be given him, owing to the fact that he failed to appear here.

Amended Answer.

In the district court today an amended answer to a complaint filed in the case of Oscar Allison versus the Cripple Creek Mining & Development company was filed this morning.

Allison has brought suit for damages sustained while working in one of the Stratton properties. The answer sets forth that the company is not responsible as the plaintiff voluntarily put himself in a place of danger.

To Arrange a Match.

Burt Ulmer, manager of Jim Bennett of this city, left for Glenwood Springs where he expects to arrange a match for Bennett, to be pulled off with some colored fighter within a short time.

Case Continued.

In the certiorari case of Messrs. Hanley and Behnke versus the mayor and Republican members of the city council, et al, the request of the defendants' attorneys, the case was continued this afternoon until Friday or Saturday. The attorneys were not ready for argument, and under the code are allowed 24 hours, which was granted by Judge Cunningham of the district court.

Inspecting Schools.

Prof. E. C. Hills of Colorado college, is making an inspection of the Cripple Creek district schools. He is being escorted around the district by Superintendent Shenton of this city.

Council Meeting.

The adjourned meeting of the city council was held this evening in the city hall, with Mayor Shockley in the chair. The contest cases were again brought up and the case of O. P. Matthews, Republican, versus R. B. Ferguson, was tried. After spending two hours in the taking of testimony, the council decided to oust the Democratic member and replace him by Matthews, the Republican. They then adjourned until Saturday evening.

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE CRIPPLE CREEK DISTRICT

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, May 21.—The case of the three county commissioners, Frank Bishop, Fred Watts and Thomas Phillips, charged with malfeasance in office arising out of the Smith-Brooks printing scandal, is now in the hands of the jury and has been since early this morning. At one time the jury asked further instructions and this is considered significant in view of the nature of the information wanted. Foreman Sanderson of the jury asked if it could if the jury could find the individual members guilty on part of the counts and not guilty on others, and if one of the defendants could be found not guilty and the others guilty. Judge Vanderhoes instructed the jury that they could vote as they pleased in the matter. Up to a late hour tonight, the jury had not returned a verdict.

Charge Against Martin.

The report of the penitentiary commissioners in regard to former Warden T. H. Martin of the state penitentiary, was filed with Governor Peabody today. The former warden is charged with "gross negligence." It is asserted in the report that it was through the negligence of Mr. Martin that Austin F. Vance, alias H. W. Larvadder, escaped from the Canon City penitentiary on the night of March 31, the day after the term of Mr. Martin expired. An opinion on the report has been given by Assistant Attorney General Hersey and this report is said to recommend the prosecution of former Warden Martin. At the capitol it is asserted that Mr. Martin may be held on the charge of assisting a fugitive from justice. It is asserted by friends of Mr. Martin that there is no truth in the statement made, and that he cannot be held on any account. They claim that he did not help Vance to escape and it cannot be proved that he did.

Flag Day.

Saturday, June 13, will be Flag day in Colorado, instead of Monday, June 15, which is the day other states will celebrate. Governor Peabody has issued the following Flag day proclamation:

"For the purpose of specially demonstrating our love for the flag—the emblem of the nation's strength, justice and glory—it has become the custom to celebrate Old Glory's birthday, anniversary as Flag day.

"I, therefore, proclaim Saturday, June 13, 1903, as Flag day, and recommend that it be set apart for appropriate exercises and ceremonies, and that places of business as well as the home, display the banner of our achievements.

"Furthermore do I urge the observation of Flag day by the schools of the state to the end that the citizens of tomorrow may learn today those magnificent lessons of patriotism which are taught by that flag, which is the emblem of our country in sunshine and in storm, the stars of which will ever shine brighter so long as it continues to lead only along the paths of righteousness as well as the paths of glory.

"In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and cause the great seal of state to be affixed. Done at the state capitol, Denver, Colo., this 20th day of May, A. D. 1903.

"James H. Peabody."

American Labor Union.

Among the important things to come before the executive board of the American Labor union, now in session here, is the changing of its headquarters to some other city than Butte, Mont., where they are now located. Denver seems to be a favorite among the several cities mentioned. The city is thought to be particularly favorable as to location, being nearer the center of the union's membership. A proposition for erecting a building costing in the neighborhood of $100,000, to be owned by the union, is contemplated. The A. L. U. is also interested in the Western Federation of Miners, and its affiliated bodies, the Western Federation of Miners and Brotherhood of Railway Employes, has a membership of 200,000.

To Raise Vegetables.

The state authorities have purchased 60 acres of land, with water rights, adjoining the State Industrial School for Boys at Golden. They propose to use this land for raising vegetables, and the boys will do the work. The price paid for the tract was $6,000. It is estimated that the money cleared from the produce raised on the ground will go a long way toward supporting the institution.
